

Heart breaker

When i hear that song on the radio , I remember a girl it wasn't long ago

She's an angel she'd better kiss my ass (that's right)

I don't wanna play her fool's game

If i kicked you and played with your love

You would fall upon your knees, you'd grudge no pains to hold on to love

What would you say then to me?

We're goin`on tonight, i`m down down down again

Won't breaking out tonight i`m down down down again

She's a heartbreaker, lovetaker

She's like on a trip, here i am alone

She makes the boys go mad, and it's just a game

Well i guess she has the sweetest breath `n breast

Yeah she `s not the type i want today

You would fall upon your knees, you'd grudge no pains to hold on to love

What would you say then to me?

We're goin`on tonight, i`m down down down again

Won't breaking out tonight i`m down down down again

She's a heartbreaker, lovetaker

solo

kicked, played go upon your knees

grudge no pains to hold on to love
