

Man of the dark

I've seen her face, i lost control

One of a million in the crowd

The days go by, reflecting minds

She was the lover that i like

I feel my love , but it`s too late

They came out of the dark and go away

She`s got the power that my heart needs to stay

I could forget all the pain of yesterday

The man of the dark

I know that it`s you who`s breaking my heart

The man of the dark

I wanna stay and play my part

Her last words are still on my mind

I`m not the boy she tries to find

But in my thoughts there is a place

To dream of her although i`m far away
